Abacus Email View Body+ Power View for Time Matters®

Free! Created by Abacus Consulting, LLC, the Email View Body+ Power View for Time Matters 5, 6, 7 and 8 is a new and improved version of the Email View Power View that is distributed with Time Matters. It is available as a Power View for both Matter and Contact records.

The Email View Body+ uses enhanced color for readability, includes additional fields, and shows the full text of each email linked to the contact/matter, and provides a red delimiter line as a visual cue for identifying the start of a new message while scrolling through numerous email messages..

About the Email View Body+ Power View

The Email View Body+ Power View for Time Matters 5, 6, 7 and 8 is a new and improved version of the Email View Power View that is distributed with Time Matters. It is available as a Power View for both Matter and Contact lists.

What are the enhancements?

- Enhanced color use for easier email readability
- Includes "staff" or "owner" of the email record
- Includes the date each email was sent to billing to help prevent lost billable time
- Email date, time and subject are highlighted yellow in order to easily identify individual email message information
- The full body of the email message is included and color coded green to improve readability when scanning multiple email messages
- Each email message is delineated by a bright red line to facilitate locating the start of the next email message

How much does it cost?

Abacus Consulting, LLC provides this Time Matters enhancement free of charge for your own personal use as long as the terms in the End User Licensing Agreement (EULA) are met.

Where can I get it?

The Email View Body+ Power View is available for download here. Please be sure to sign up for notification if you would like to receive an email in the event that this Power View is updated.